We pray for the people who have recently died and ask God to grant their families and loved ones the strength to carry on until we all join God in the Resurrection:

FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
JULY 8, 2007

“At that time the Lord appointed seventy-two others whom He sent ahead of Him in pairs to every town and place He intended to visit. He said to them, ‘the harvest is abundant but the laborers are few, so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest. Go on your way, behold I am sending you like lambs among wolves ... into whatever house you enter, first say, ‘Peace to this household.’ ... say to them the kingdom of God is at hand for you.”

How frequently we find pairs together in the scriptures. Two sets of brothers were called from the fishing business. Two sisters offered hospitality to Jesus in their home. Two distressed persons met the Lord on the way home to Emmaus. By being together, there was a sense of support, strength and in the words of Pope John Paul II, “solidarity.”

Today, we are all sent like the seventy-two to repeat the same message they received. It is the message we find when Jesus begins His ministry in the gospel of Mark. “Repent, the kingdom of God is at hand.” During the course of two thousand years, throughout the history of the church, countless have heard the message and accepted it in a most serious way. They try to adhere to the call to conversion, communion and solidarity.

Unfortunately, countless others have not heard, or have chosen only part of the message entrusted to the church. It is to these we are sent a second and third time, to re-evangelize and express the urgency of the message. The more we are convinced of the need for peace in a world which does not know its existence, the more we live of the message of justice for all people, the more we work to build the kingdom of Jesus in our own parish community, then we will be responding to the mission of Jesus Christ in the year 2007.

In his clear and forceful teaching the late Holy Father told us all “the mission of Christ the Redeemer, which He entrusted to His church, is still far from completion.” During the less busy days of summer, let's discover the way I will contribute as He sends me as His companion to my world.

Congratulations

Every year the Capuchin Youth and Family Ministry in Garrison awards scholarships to the most outstanding of the many, many young people who participate in their programs. A great number of parishes from all over New York New Jersey and Connecticut are involved there. And yet, this year, three of the five scholarships went to teens from our parish. At an award ceremony at the Holiday Inn in Fishkill, the CYFM directors sang the praises of our Brian Debronsky, Steve Traditi, and Smantha Mazzuca, pointing out, among other things, their passionate desire to know Jesus and to walk humbly with Him in service to others. Most of all, CYFM acknowledged their tremendous leadership skills in bringing other young people to understand and follow the Lord. We should be so proud of them! In today's world it is so rare to find such commitment in youth.

We thank all who have come so faithfully to our own God's TYM, and who graduated last month. We pray that the torch of faith, which you have passed on will continue to glow and inspire many other youth in Beacon.

¡BIENVENIDOS!
Domingo 14 del tiempo Ordinario.
Is 66,10-14c Gál 6,14-18
Lc 10,1-12.17-20

En el evangelio de hoy, Jesús envía a sus discípulos a llevar su mensaje de amor y de salvación al mundo. Les pide que vayan de dos en dos, con sencillez, confiando solo en la misericordia de Dios. Les pide que lleven deseos de paz a todos a quienes visiten; que curen enfermos y que les anuncien la próxima venida del reino de Dios. A cambio de cumplir esta misión, su recompensa será grande: el Cielo.

¿Y nosotros también estamos llamados por Cristo, para llevar su mensaje de salvación? ¡Claro que sí! Por que también somos sus discípulos. Y como ellos, nos pide que vayamos por la vida confiando en el, llevando con nuestro propio ejemplo su mensaje de amor a los demás. Cuando confiando en Dios, mas que en las cosas, el se encarga de que tengamos lo necesario para ser felices. Y nuestro buen ejemplo, curara a más de uno que ha perdido la esperanza.

Llevar el mensaje de Cristo es actuar poniendo siempre a Dios como lo más importante en nuestras vidas. Es demostrar el amor de Dios en el amor que damos a los que nos rodean.

En nuestras familias, casi siempre hay dos que Dios envió para guiarnos por el camino del amor: nuestros padres. Como mensajeros de Dios, nos dieron la vida y nos traen el mensaje de su amor, a través de su ejemplo y de sus palabras. Por eso debemos escucharles y honrarles con nuestro comportamiento. Si es así, ¡en nuestro hogar reinara la paz!

El sacerdote, nuestro padre, la palabra de Dios escrita... son otros mensajeros de Dios que nos guían hacia el Reino de Dios.

Oración

Te rogamos, Padre Bueno que acojas las súplicas que te hemos presentado y nos recibas y consueles a nosotros mismos de la misma manera que una madre acoge y consuela a sus pequeños hijos. Por Jesucristo Nuestro Señor. Amén.
