FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER MAY 6, 2007

“And when they arrived, they called the church together and reported what God had done with them and how He had opened the doors of faith to the Gentiles” ... “I give you a new commandment, love one another. As I have loved you so you should love one another. This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.”

Wouldn't it have been exciting to travel with Paul and Barnabas to those many cities and towns? Reading the Acts of the Apostles we become part of their entourage, listening to their teaching, praying with the communities, commending them to the Lord, fasting and discovering the hand of God as part of their work. Their ministry also encountered hardship, such as rejection, prison and even shipwreck.

Today let's switch roles. We are accompanied by the spirit of Paul and Barnabas as we live our faith in our local communities. The names are familiar, not a far off town, but the parishes to which we belong. We testify to the presence of Jesus Christ in our lives by our participation in the Eucharist and making others aware of God's love, opening the doors of faith to them. When was the last time, if ever, that you invited someone to worship or pray with you? It is in doing just this that you carry out Jesus' command.

If I truly believe that Jesus lives and is present in my church community and home, then I want to share that belief with someone else. If I truly believe that He loves me and calls me to be His disciple, I see that the easiest way to put His teaching into practice is to invite someone to share what I have and feel is really important.

Do you remember the line in the song that stated “love isn't love until you give it away?” That's what Jesus did and asks us to do.

¡BIENVENIDOS!
5to DOMINGO DE PASCUA.
Hch 14,21-27 Ap 21,1-5
Jn 13,31-33.34-35

Jesús sabe que le queda poco tiempo antes de sufrir su pasión y despedirse de sus amigos. Y utiliza estos últimos momentos, para dejarnos en claro el mensaje mas importante que Dios tiene para la humanidad: que nos amemos los unos a los otros, como el nos ha amado. Y para que no quede duda de lo que espera de nosotros, agrega que la manera en que nos amemos seremos reconocidos como cristianos.

Amar a los que nos rodean como Cristo nos amo, significa amarlos hasta el extremo, dando nuestra vida por ellos. Y “dar nuestra vida” por los demás no significa necesariamente morir por ellos, sino ocupar nuestra vida entregándonos a los que nos rodean, buscando siempre su bien. Por que amar no es “SENTIR BINITO”, sino tomar decisión de querer y buscar el bien del amado, aun cuando tenga que sacrificar mi tiempo y mi soledad. Cuando vivimos amando, se nota en que somos mas serviciales; mas atentos y amables; obedecemos a quienes buscan nuestro bien, aunque de pronto no nos guste lo que nos daña, aunque ello signifique meternos en problemas; ayudamos al que nos necesita; compartimos incluso lo que mas nos cuesta compartir; somos mas tolerantes; no hablamos mal de nadie... y todo esto distingue a un buen discípulo de Cristo.
