Boy Scout Information

Even though our parish Boy Scout troop is celebrating 50 consecutive years of being chartered, the troop is actually much older than that. St. Joachim's had sponsored this troop essentially since 1922. Twenty-one members of the troop have become Eagle Scouts and twenty-one earned the Ad Altare Dei religious award for Catholic Boy Scouts. A reminder - the troop is inviting parishioners to stop by their campout at Camp Foster the weekend of Oct. 24/25 to observe our troop in action. Parishioners are especially invited to join the Scouts at the special outdoor Mass at 3:00 pm on Saturday, Oct. 25 at Foster.

Bicentennial Campaign

Once again, many thanks for your generous support of the Bicentennial Campaign. We recently received our semi-annual payment – this time for $39,291.55, bringing the total amount of money we have received to $294,576. We are now in the third year of our five-year program. As you know, we just completed the latest project being paid for with Bicentennial funds – the installation of the lift at St. Joachim's. Our next project will be replacement of windows at St. John's rectory. Our pledge redemptions are at 70% and a number of our parishioners have paid their three-year pledges in full. There are, however, a small number of parishioners who are way behind in making their pledge payments. We will be sending letters to those individuals to determine their participation status.

¡BIENVENIDOS!
28 DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO.

LECTURAS PARA EL DIA DE HOY:

1 Lectura: Is 25,6-10a: El Señor prepara un festín.

2 Lectura: Flp 4,12-14.19-20: Sé vivir en pobreza y abundancia.

Evangelio: Mt 22,1-14: Conviden a la boda a todos los excluidos

«Id a los cruces de los caminos y, a cuantos encontréis, invítadlos a la boda»

Hoy, Jesús nos muestra al rey (el Padre), invitado por medio de sus "siervos" (los profetas), al banquete de la alianza de su Hijo con la humanidad (la salvación). Primero lo hizo con Israel, «pero no quisieron venir». Ante la negativa, no deja el Padre de insistir: «Mirad mi banquete está preparado, y todo está a punto; venid a la boda». Pero ese desaire de muerte de los siervos, suscita el envío de tropas, la muerte de aquellos homicidas y la quema de "su" ciudad: Jerusalén.

Así es que, por otros "siervos" (apóstoles) enviados a ir por «los cruces de los caminos» (: «Id, pues, y haced discípulos a todas las gentes bautizándolas...», dirá más tarde el Señor Jesús que fuimos invitados nosotros, el resto de la humanidad, es decir, «todos los que encontraron, malos y buenos, y la sala de bodas se llenó de comensales»: la Iglesia. Aún así, la cuestión, no es sólo estar en la sala de bodas por la invitación, sino que, tiene que ver también y mucho, con la dignidad con la que se está («traje de boda»). San Jerónimo comentó al respecto: «Los vestidos de fiesta son los preceptos del Señor y las obras cumplidas según la Ley y el Evangelio que son las vestiduras del hombre nuevo». Es decir, las obras de la caridad con las que se debe acompañar a la fe.

Conocemos que Madre Teresa, todas las noches, salía a las calles de Calcuta a recoger moribundos para darles, con amor, un buen morir: limpios, bien arropados y, si era posible, bautizados. Cierta vez comentó: «No tengo miedo de morir, porque cuando esté delante del Padre, habrá tantos pobres que le entregué con el traje de bodas que sabrán defenderme». ¡Bienaventurada ella! Aprendamos la lección nosotros.
