Please Pray for Priests

Dear Lord, we pray that the Blessed Mother wrap her mantle around your priests and through her intercession strengthen them for their ministry. We pray that Mary will guide your priests to follow her own words, "Do whatever He tells you" (Jn 2:5). May your priests have the heart of St. Joseph, Mary's most chaste spouse. May the Blessed Mother's own pierced heart inspire them to embrace all who suffer at the foot of the cross. May your priests be holy, filled with the fire of your love seeking nothing but your greater glory and the salvation of souls. Amen.
St. John Vianney, pray for us.

Absolution By Paul Turner

In the liturgy God pardons sinners through the words of absolution. The word "absolution" appears in two distinct places in the liturgy. In the sacrament of penance, the priest says the words of absolution, and Christ forgives the repentant sinner. At Mass the words that conclude the penitential act are called "absolution," but according to #51 of the General Instruction of the Roman Missal, they lack the efficacy of the sacrament of penance. That is, these words at Mass do not intend to forgive sin in the same explicit way that absolution in confession does.

The first English translation of the absolution at Mass may have contributed to the confusion. The priest has been saying, "May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to ever lasting life." Through these words, the priest was asking for God's forgiveness. But the original Latin text on which these words are based never really made that request. The revised translation says more accurately, "May almighty God have mercy on us and lead us, with our sins forgiven, to eternal life." The priest does not specifically request the forgiveness of sins. He asks God for mercy and for eternal life. He asks these blessings for those who have their sins forgiven, but the text leaves open just how that forgiveness is granted.

Catholics believe that God forgives our venial sins in many ways, even through a variety of prayers we say at Mass and especially in the reception of communion. But the sacrament of penance is the primary way that serious sins are forgiven and the best way for sinners to draw strength to gain the full freedom of the children of God.

15to Domingo del tiempo ordinario

LECTURAS PARA EL DIA DE HOY:

1 Lectura: Dt 30, 10-14: El mandamiento esta muy cerca de ti; cumplelo.

2 Lectura: Col 1, 15-20: Todo fue creado por el y para el

Evangelio: Lc 10, 25-37: Parabola del buen samaritano.

"Un samaritano tuvo compasion; y; acercandose, vengo sus heridas y, montandole sobre su propia cabalgadura..."

Hoy, nos preguntamos: y quien es mi proximo? Cuentan que unos judios que sentian curiosidad al ver desaparecer su rabino en la vigilia del sabado. Sospecharon que tenia un secreto, quizas con Dios, y confiaron a uno el encargo de seguirlo, y asi lo hizo, lleno de emocion, hasta una barriada miserable, donde vio al rabino cuidando y barriendo la casa de una mujer: era paralitica, y la servia y le preparaba una comida especial para la fiesta. Cuando volvio, le preguntaron al espio: Donde ha ido?; al cielo, entre las nubes y las estrellas?. Y contesto: "No, ha subido mucho mas arriba"

Amar a otros con obras es lo mas alto, es donde se manifiesta el amor. No pasar de largo!: es el propio cristo quien alza su voz en los pobres para despertar la caridad de sus discipulos.

Hacer de buen samaritano significa cambiar los planes, dedicar tiempo. Toda ocupacion ofrece la oportunidad, mas o menos directa, de ayudar a quien lo necesita. El cumplimiento fiel de los propios deberes profesionales ya es practicar el amor por las personas y la sociedad. Dejarlo todo para acoger a quien lo necesita y hacer bien el trabajo por amor son

Las dos formas de amar que nos corresponden.

ORACION: Dios padre nuestro que en Jesus nos has ensenado que el amor y la solidaridad son el culto principal y primero con el que tu quieres ser adorado, ilumina nuestra mirada para descubrir a tantos hombres y mujeres que han sido marginados a la orilla del camino, donde apenas sobreviven, y ensancha nuestro corazon para hacernos solidarios con ellos. Tu que vives y reinas, por los siglos de los siglos. AMEN.
